

WOMEN OF SCOTTSDALE

For Immediate Release

Contact: Sandy Doubleday

NEWS RELEASE

602-510-5005

Women of Scottsdale Celebrates Annual HATS Luncheon

Women of Scottsdale celebrated their annual “Hats” luncheon at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa. Members and guests wore their favorite hats and competed for best hat in four categories. The April Meeting was sponsored by frontdoors Lifestyle News and favors were provided by The Capital Grille.

Laurie Hunter won for her “Made By Hand” hat created with fruit. Selected for “Vintage” Rita DelVecchio wore an elegant hat with feathers. “So Beautiful” went to Cindy White who wore an ensemble and hat in pink. Beth Southworth won in the “It’s All About Me” category. The official judges for the 2008 Hats contest were Sheree Hartwell, Jeffrey Hattrick and Helen Nosova

Director Michele Yates welcomed members and guests. Those attending included Maryglenn Boals, Julia Patrick, Cheryl Graf, Jane Jozoff, Linda Kammeyer, Courtney Penwell, Anne Robbs, and Kelly Zitlow.

Women of Scottsdale was founded in 1998. Women who live, work or conduct business in Scottsdale meet for a monthly luncheon and share mutual interests, exchange ideas and connect with other women in the community.

Women associated with business, government, education, nonprofits and the arts meet at the Westin Kierland Resort & Spa the third Friday of each month.

Information and invitation available at www.womenofscottsdale.org or 480 391-6585.

Women of Scottsdale is a division of Herold Enterprises.

Attached Photos:

Photos:

001 Ilyne Fleishman, Rita DelVecchio

002 Beth Southworth, Cindy White

003 Grace Hyde, Laurie Hunter, Leslie Hosford

004 Sherre Hartwell, Jeffrey Hattrick – Judges